

Title of Capacity Development Workshop:	Fecal Sludge Treatment Plants and Container-based Sanitation in Practice: Sanivation, Naivasha and Sanergy Nairobi
Contact details
Name of proposing organization/s	Sanergy; Sanivation
Practical requirements
Timing	Fullday, Friday 8:30-6:00
Minimum/ Maximum number of participants	35
Facilities preferred	None required – we would host at our offices in Mukuru, Nairobi and in Naivasha. Sanergy's offices are located: Sanergy Headquarters Address: Yana Tyres, Off Enterprise Road, Industrial Area, Nairobi Sanivation's site is located on Sanctuary Farm, off of Moi South Lake Rd. Naivasha, Kenya
Staff details
Names, qualifications and brief description of experience of staff delivering the workshop.	David Auerbach, co-founder, Sanergy, which he launched in 2010-11 in Nairobi. Field operations experience of 7+ years. Sanergy currently serves 50,000 people through a network of 1500 toilets – the largest provider of non-sewered sanitation services in Kenya. Andrew Foote, CEO and co-founder, started Sanivation in 2014 in Naivasha, Kenya. Andrew manages a 70+ person team that operates two feces-to-fuel factories within Naivasha and Kakuma Refugee Camp.
Course details
Aims:	Participants will learn about how non-sewered approaches can effectively serve residents of urban informal settlements. Participants will see Sanergy's toilets and manufacturing and learn insights about their waste treatment work. Participants will see Sanivation's cost-effective waste processing facility and learn how they treat and transform feces into sustainable solid fuel.

Intended audience:	Those interested in functioning sanitation service chains in low income urban settlements
Intended Learning Outcomes/Objectives:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- 1. Tour the operations of two container-based sanitation organizations.</li> <li>- 2. Understand different cost-recovery approaches to non-sewered sanitation services.</li> <li>- 3. Provide insights into the strengths and challenges with operating non-sewered sanitation services and how they relate to the enabling environment.</li> </ul>
Format and Content of Workshop	Proposed Agenda:  8:30 Bus departs Nakuru  10:30 Arrival at Sanivation and site tour  11:30 Lunch at Sanivation (beef and veggie burgers, salad, and chips catered by Sanctuary Farm)  12:00 Depart for Nairobi  2:00 Arrival at Sanergy and site tour  3:30 Depart for drop off in Nairobi (location TBC)
Materials to be circulated in advance or after the workshop.	Company two-pager for both Sanergy and Sanivation; to be distributed on bus before departure from Nakuru
Means of assessment and feedback to students: A description of how the participants (and their employers) can gauge if they can meet the intended learning outcomes
Mechanism and means of course evaluation: A description of how the trainers will obtain feedback on the course.	