Acknowledgements

The financial support of the Department for International Development of the British Government is gratefully acknowledged. The valuable assistance and contributions of engineers, managers and consultants in our field research cities is much appreciated by the authors. Key people include: A. Narender in Guntor, India, G. Bhattarai in various small towns in Nepal, S.K. Gupta, Agra, India and Ms A. Kamalie for the Lesotho report. Many other utility, NGO and college staff provided valuable assistance in our fieldwork in the main research locations: Mombasa, Kampala, Durban and Guntor for which we are most grateful.

The advice and review work of Dennis Mwanza, Alison Wedgwood, Kimberly Clarke and Guy Howard is also appreciated.
